

IDENTIFICATION OF LEP STUDENTS

This section addresses and describes the procedures for identifying students enrolled in the district who may be LEP.

Definition of Limited English Proficient (LEP) Students

An LEP student in the Commonwealth of Virginia is classified according to the federal government definition as described in Public Law 107-110, the No Child Left Behind Act of 2001.

An LEP student is classified as one:
(A.) who is aged 3 through 21;
(B.) who is enrolled or preparing to enroll in an elementary school or secondary school;
(C.) (i.) who was not born in the United States or whose native language is a language other than English; and who comes from an environment where a language other than English is dominant
OR
(ii.) (I.) who is a Native American or Alaska Native, or a native resident of outlying areas; and
(II.) who comes from an environment where a language other than English has had a significant impact on the individual's level of English language proficiency;
OR
(iii.) who is migratory, whose native language is a language other than English, and who comes from an environment where a language other than English is dominant;
AND
(D.) whose difficulties speaking, reading, writing, or understanding the English language may be sufficient to deny the individual –
(i.) the ability to meet the State's proficient level of achievement on State assessments described in section 1111(b)(3);
(ii.) the ability to achieve successfully in classrooms where the language of instruction is English; or
(iii.) the opportunity to participate fully
